Pope Francis has written this special prayer, and is encouraging Christians throughout the world to unite in praying it:

O Mary, you shine continuously on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope.
We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick.
At the foot of the Cross you participated in Jesus' pain, with steadfast faith.
You, know what we need.

We are certain that you will provide, so that, as you did at Cana of Galilee, joy and feasting might return after this moment of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the Father's will and to do what Jesus tells us: He who took our sufferings upon Himself, and bore our sorrows to bring us, through the Cross, to the joy of the Resurrection. Amen.

We seek refuge under your protection,
O Holy Mother of God.
Do not despise our pleas,
we who are put to the test
and deliver us from every danger,
O glorious and blessed Virgin.

Please remember in your prayers those who are sick or housebound:

Anne Pitt, Lea Small, John Walsh, Hilda Kavanagh, Marie Russell, Joan Younger, Paul White, Daragh Lawless, Catherine Keeley, Elizabeth Melling, Melanie Tiernan, Margaret & Robert Gwynne, Paddy Shillington, Lena Smith, Fr Francis Maple, Shirley Kirkham, Tuff Robertson, Jim Ellison, John & Elizabeth Olliffe, Kevin Keeley

Please keep me updated about those named above

Health & Safety

Stay at home !

As I type, the indications are that the lockdown will continue. The "it won't happen to me brigade" may prolong an even stricter lockdown for weeks to come if the present restrictions are ignored.

St Joseph's Mablethorpe new website: <http://www.stjosephsrccmablethorpe.co.uk/>

Those of you who have computers and access to the internet can find numerous international parish websites where Masses and Liturgical Services are accessible on Facebook.

I'm afraid I'm not geared up to do the same. If you know what I need to do please let me know, by email – (I'm in isolation!)

May you have a healthy Eastertide
